

Twin Valley MS/HS LIBRARY

Issue 2 Volume 2

November 27, 2017

Ms. Bolognani, Library Media and Technology Integration Specialist

abolognani@tvhs.k12.vt.us

Stay copyright compliant by using Creative Commons and copyright free pictures. Creative commons is a nonprofit that enables legal sharing and reuse of work through legal licensing.

Here are several sites that you can send your students to. These can also be found on <http://tvmhs.com/pages/resources.html>

<http://www.photosforclass.com/> - lots of pictures, age appropriate, includes citation information

<https://search.creativecommons.org/> - pictures, music, video using Creative Commons Licensing

<http://www.pics4learning.com/> - easy to search, pictures divided

HAVE YOU HEARD? THE LIBRARY OFFERS DIGITAL

Go to listenupvermont.org

Your will need your TVMHS Library Card number to use this service.

Please stop in the library and get assistance if needed.

Mediaversity a TV and Film Guide based on diversity. "...a tool to view media from a different perspective."

<https://www.mediaversityreviews.com/>

Are Martians Behind the Fake News?

Remember to fact check before reposting! Know where your information is coming from. A website? Twitter? Facebook? Check to see who posted the information. Is the author credible? Where did the information come from? Is there a bias? Is the information accurate and current?

Some site to use that will set you straight.

<http://www.factcheck.org/> A website for getting political facts.

<http://www.politifact.com/> Another website for getting political facts and following presidential promises.

<https://www.opensecrets.org/> Find out who is giving money to your senator and how much.

<http://www.truthorfiction.com/> Get the truth about rumors, inspirational stories, virus warnings, hoaxes, scams, humorous tales, pleas for help, urban legends, prayer requests, calls to action, and other forwarded emails.

<https://www.snopes.com/> Fact check religion, urban legends, hoaxes, and scams.